1. A confidential source reported the following information which may be of interest to your Bureau: In early July of this year there appeared in Ukrainian emigre circles in the New York/New Jersey area one Volodymir ROZHANKIVSKIY. Volodymir is about 60 years of age. He arrived from Moscow with a visitor's visa valid for three months and reportedly had it extended in the United States for a period of up to six months. He was living in Vienna in 1945, but repatriated to the Soviet Union that year.

2. Volodymir is ^{Common law} married to a Russian, the former wife of Yaroslav HALAN, a Ukrainian writer and political police agent who was assassinated in Lvov on October 24, 1949. This is the third marriage for Volodymir's wife. She reportedly is a social climber and ambitious, insofar as her husbands' careers are concerned.

Yaroslav, according to our source, is not involved in any political emigre activity and not politically inclined, and he is a respected member of the Ukrainian emigre community. Volodymir's other brother, Stephan, address unknown, works at City Hall in New York City.

4. According to our source, Volodymir has been frequenting Ukrainian emigre gatherings since his arrival. He is highly critical of everything American and constantly sings the praises of his life in the Soviet Union. Although he claims to work at nothing more than the appraisal of the artistic value of ceramics at a museum, he says he owns a
